Dear Cheryl,

As part of the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee’s reorganization process of reducing the number of units on campus from thirteen down to eleven colleges we were asked, along with all the other units not presently being called a college to revise our name to include the term “college”. This entailed changing our name from The Sheldon B. Lubar School of Business to The Sheldon B. Lubar College of Business.

As part of our governance process this name change was first voted on in our Executive Committee and then by the Faculty Committee. The Executive Committee met on February 3, 2022, and voted in favor of the change, with no one voting “No”. The Faculty Committee then met on February 23, 2022 and voted unanimously in favor of the change.

This change will have a minimal effect on programs, centers, faculty, and staff. Our website, promotional materials, letterhead, and business cards will need to be updated and the signage in and around the building will need to be altered. Some signs around campus directing visitors to Lubar will also need to be revised. The exact costs and who is going to pay for this have yet to be determined but should be relatively modest.

Regards,
